Entertainment

Carl Hurley, drawing from his roots in the tradition of such other American humorists as Andy Griffith and Garrison Keillor, delights audiences with his reflections on life as viewed by a native of Appalachia. Part of a family of natural-born storytellers from the hills of Laurel County, Kentucky, Hurley combines his innate skills as a yarn-spinner with the expressiveness of a great comic actor. With an impish giggle on his lips and a benign twinkle in his eye, Hurley spreads an infectious form of fun that is often outrageous yet always good-natured and clean. His unique comedy style, coupled with a background in public education, has earned him the title of "America's funniest professor."

Endless Summer Band is considered one of the finest dance bands in the country. ESB's unmatched musical variety and non-stop, familiar mega-hits-mix guarantees that the dance floor will stay full all night long. Their variety show features audience participation, humor, colorful costumes, high energy choreography, and dramatic sound and lighting effects.
